

Kip Johnson (he/him) is a bass-baritone, composer, and multi-instrumentalist from Monterey, California. He graduated from the Fountain School of Performing Arts in 2023 with a degree in Composition.

Kip is the Graduate Conducting Fellow for the King's College Chapel Choir, the assistant director of the Kings Chorus, and a choral scholar with the Cathedral Church of All Saints Choir.

His choral piece Forsaken was performed at the 2023 Open Waters Festival in Halifax, and in the Kings College Chapel on Good Friday. He also participates in composition workshops with international ensembles, including Ensemble Silakbo and Symphony Nova Scotia.

Kip performs with various folk ensembles with a focus on traditional music of the British Isles and the folk revival.